Headline:
Increasing cloud. Patchy rain spreading east.

Today:
A chilly but fairly bright start to the day. However, thicker cloud will spill in from the west, with rain arriving by lunchtime. Outbreaks of rain spreading eastwards through the afternoon and evening. Breezy and a touch milder than Tuesday. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying cloudy through the night, with further rain and drizzle at times. Turning drier towards the end of the night. Largely frost free. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Thursday:
A largely cloudy morning, with a little light rain, largely over the hills. Rain turning more persistent into the afternoon. Mild and breezy. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Often cloudy on Christmas Eve, with the risk of some rain. Turning colder Christmas Day, perhaps a little hill snow. Sunny spells and a few wintry showers on Boxing Day.
